

Taking Time to Manage Your Time

Training | Keynote

Attitude

Team Building

Too much to do and not enough time to get it all done? Basic to managing individual and organizational performance, setting priorities and managing time effectively is key. This program develops a strategy designed to address individual needs for meeting the daily challenge of managing professional and personal responsibilities.

Objectives

After participating in this program, you will be able to:

- Discover your time management strengths
- Develop new skills for improved performance and efficiency
- Focus on your priorities
- Increase your productivity at work and at home
- Get more done with less stress

Ideal Size

Keynote: No limit

Training: Up to 36 people

Length

Keynote: 60-90 minutes

Training: 3-6 hours

Target Audience

Anyone! Since we all manage time!

Typical Uses

Employee and management development, seminars and programs, project management, and new employee orientation

Format

This interactive program uses experiential learning techniques such as self-assessment, large and small group discussions, individual projects, and post-program application.

Agenda

Using the Time Mastery Profile®, this program provides people with practical tools and techniques for getting more done with less stress. Program explores over 125 strategies to improve your use of:

- Attitudes
- Interruptions
- Goals
- Meetings
- Priorities
- Paperwork
- Analyzing
- Delegation
- Planning
- Procrastination
- Scheduling
- Time teamwork

Material Options

Deluxe: Handouts, a Time Mastery Paper Profile® and miscellaneous take-aways at $40 per person, or Handouts, a Time Mastery Online Profile® and miscellaneous take-aways at $50 per person Time Mastery Facilitator Report $60

Regular: Handouts and miscellaneous take-aways at $3 per person