

Visionary Leadership Strategies

Training | Keynote

Leadership is no longer seen as one defining role. It is a dynamic relationship between leaders and followers. This program approaches leadership as a one-to-many relationship as in leading a team, group, project or organization toward desired outcomes.

Objectives

During this program you will explore a simple, three-step process to reflect on how you:

- Create a vision
- Build alignment around the vision
- Champion the execution of the vision

Format

This interactive program uses experiential learning techniques such as self-assessments, large and small group discussions, individual projects, and best practices.
